

Main Street Bonhill, Alexandria
Offers around £100,000
4 bedroom detached cottage

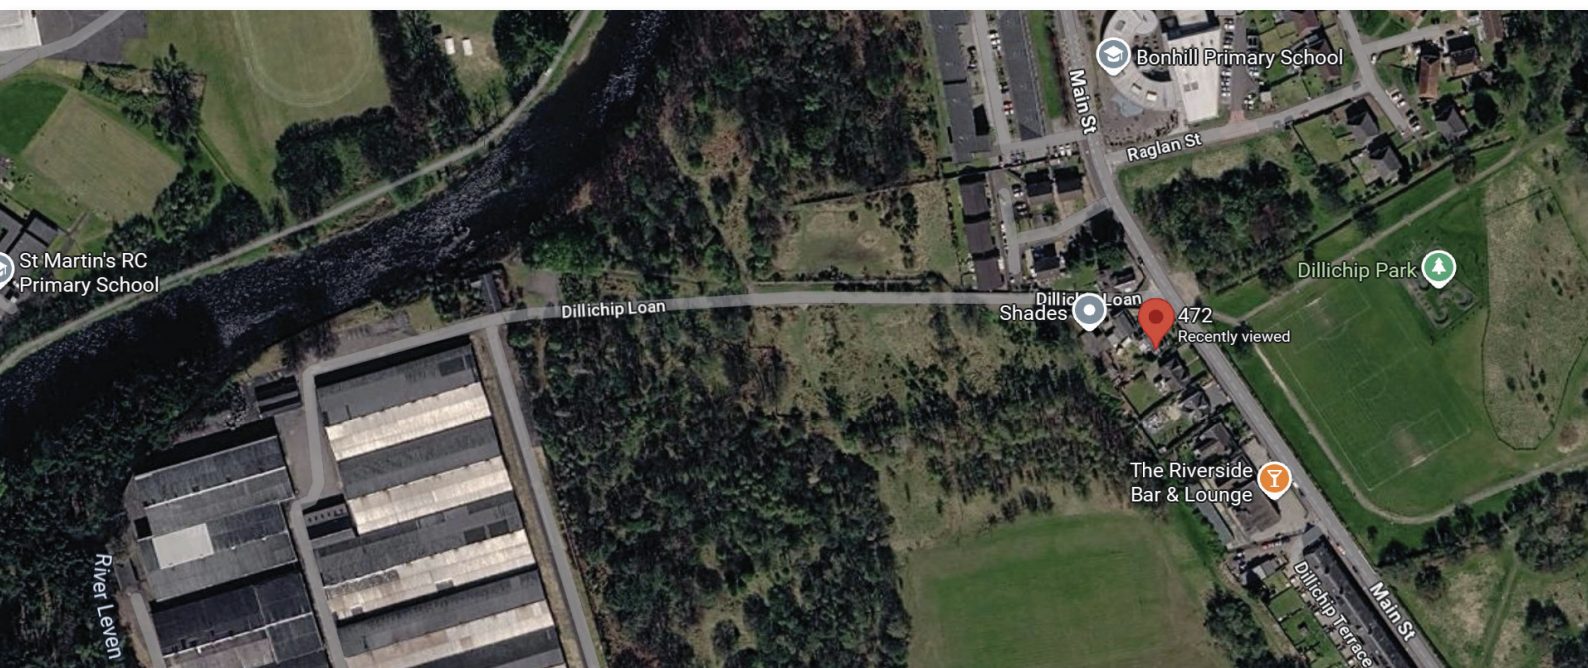

This 4 bedroom detached cottage sits within substantial garden grounds and is offered at a price to attract investors and developers who are looking for this type of property and opportunity. The property requires major works to bring it back to an acceptable standard and we would be delighted to meet investors at the property who are interested in this type of project. The video which has been attached will give an idea of the work required and also show the amount of ground on offer and the potential this may have. There is also a full home report available on request.

The accommodation comprises, main door to hallway. Off the hallway we have a public room/bedroom with window to the front. Again off the hallway and to the rear we have a further bedroom with window to the rear. The lounge is to the right with window facing to the front. We have a central hallway accessed from the lounge which has a side door giving access to the garden. The 'L' shaped kitchen is to the rear with windows to the side. Also off the central hallway is a bathroom with window to the side. From the entry hallway stairs rise to upper level accommodation and hallway, 3 bedrooms are situated on this level. The property is approximately 20 minutes from Glasgow airport and Braehead shopping centre.
